

2016-2017

Annual Report

NOT FOR SCHOOL,

BUT FOR LIFE.

Living and learning at Carroll College is about more than earning a degree and preparing for a career. It's about who our students become.

It's about the moments our students and faculty share in the classrooms, labs, and the field that are enlightening and powerful.

Together, we pursue knowledge with curiosity and conviction. With creativity and positivity.

Because that's what it takes if you want to truly touch lives and bring positive change to the world.

In the process, students experience moments that empower them to realize their vision of the life they want to lead.

Dear Friends of Carroll College:

Much has changed at Carroll College in the course of this past year. We have seen buildings rise, and a president depart. We met major milestones in the Mind Body Spirit campaign—the largest capital campaign in school history and have entered the final year of our five-year strategic plan, reaching and refining goals along the way. We have much to reflect on and much to look forward to in the days and months ahead.

As an institution entering a year of transition, we benefit in this moment of stillness as we deliberate and recalibrate. We have the opportunity to take measure of our accomplishments, acknowledge our successes, and refresh our vision for the future. But there is also productivity in transition.

We recognize the great privilege we have been given to shepherd the college through this transition and we do not view this as a fallow year. We have a lot to build upon and our attention is focused, yet open to the possibilities. We are identifying new opportunities for growth and putting in place load-bearing strategies that support our mission.

As we assess where we have been and where we are headed, we are very grateful for the many ways our donors and benefactors engage with Carroll College and contribute to it. We would not be the college we are, nor be able to realize the future we envision, without your generous and continued support of our students and our mission.

The pages of this 2016-2017 Annual Report recognize the many individuals who have helped make progress and transformation possible at Carroll College. As you read through the highlights of the widespread accomplishments of our Carroll community, take pride in knowing how important your contributions are in making a difference for our students and our collective future.

Thank you for helping us educate and prepare our students not for school, but for life.

REV. STEPHEN C. ROWAN, PhD
Interim President

2016 JULY

The Legacy Society honors donors who have made a planned gift to Carroll College through trust, bequest or other estate plans. These gifts were made prior to July 1, 2017.

Tobias, a 2016 anthrozoology canine graduate, started his first job with Working Dogs for Conservation, applying his scent detection skills to help prevent the spread of invasive mussels in the Flathead/Glacier Park area. Tobias was trained by anthrozoology student Ahnna Gordon '16.

AUGUST

Carroll welcomed 24 high school students to campus in July 2016 as part of the inaugural St. Kateri Institute for Integrative Learning. The institute provides high school youth with a spiritual and academic experience in nature. It is funded with a $355,153 grant from the Lilly Endowment Inc.'s High School Youth Theology Institutes initiative. In addition to outdoor excursions around Helena, the week-long camp included a trip to Yellowstone.

Students Marko Prizmic and Kelly Taft spent a week in Baltimore, Maryland, with 120 other students from across the nation who were training to become Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Student Ambassadors. They met with experts from CRS about some of the most pressing issues facing humans around the world today—human trafficking, refugees fleeing violence, and the effects of climate change on the world's poorest citizens. Their role as CRS ambassadors is to help educate fellow Carroll students on ways they can speak up and make the world a better place.

Anthrozoology professor Dr. Erica Feuerbacher received a $20,000 grant from the WALTHAM Foundation for a project to research the effect of co-housing on shelter dogs. She, along with Carroll student Katherine Martineau, worked with dogs from the Lewis and Clark Humane Society in Helena.

A product of Carroll's Entrepreneur in Residence program, Ty Irving '17 and Joe Stoutt '16 held a launch party of their new company Big Skylines, Montana's first and only designer athletic sock company. At the launch, held at fourOsix in downtown Helena, they unveiled their first product: Helena Hightops. Since then, they have expanded their product line to include schools from around the state and outdoor-themed socks.

Faculty offices and communal spaces in St Charles submain were remodeled in the summer of 2016 to match the striking transformation completed in the two previous summers of the Father Peoples' Lobby and first floor of St. Charles. The renovations provide comfortable, modern areas for our students to convene, and inviting spaces to welcome visitors to campus.

Guided by Clinical Resource Nurse and Carroll nursing alumna Annie Young '77, Carroll senior nursing students learned about rural nursing in Montana during their clinical at the Granite County Medical Center in Philipsburg, Montana.

SEPTEMBER

OCTOBER

The new black box-style Flex Theatre in the lower Campus Center was completed last fall and provides a state-of-the-art theatre space with improved sound, lighting and projection systems as well as far greater flexibility in design and stage layout catered to each production. The flexible space is also used for guest speaker and student presentations.

Homecoming 2016 provided a special opportunity to reunite with friends, cheer on the Saints and see all the exciting new things happening on campus. In addition, the following Saints were inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame: Jill (Kent) Jenneskens '93; Shawn (Schweyen) Robertson '94; Jeff Shirley '06; and Kirk Stiles '02. Pat '72 and Colleen '74 McCutcheon were recipients of the Warren Nelson Award.

Carroll was awarded a highly-selective National Endowment for the Humanities grant of $90,707 to establish the Re-enchanting Nature: Humanities Perspectives program. The program is a three-week seminar for sixteen K-12 humanities teachers from across the country. It provides the opportunity to showcase the depth and caliber of Carroll's humanities programs. Carroll hosted the first program in the summer of 2017.

NOVEMBER

DECEMBER

The Artaza Center for Excellence in Global Education awarded more than $13,000 in scholarships to students to participate in global education programs during winter break and spring semester. Students selected represented a wide variety of majors, from anthrozoology and engineering to the sciences and nursing, as well as full semesters abroad to short-term service programs. An additional $13,850 was awarded to students in the spring for summer and fall 2017 study and service abroad.

Due to the extraordinary generosity of an anonymous donor, the college received a $5 million gift to build two additional apartment-style residence halls on campus. The new construction was completed in August 2017 and is an extension of the existing apartment-style residence halls completed in May of 2014. Net revenue from the new apartments will be directed to the Halo Scholarship fund. With this donation, the donor has provided Carroll with the single largest gift in the history of the college.

The Financial Aid and Admission staff chose the Helena Area Habitat for Humanity as their winter service project last year. The crew of 17 spent an afternoon painting a four-bedroom, two-bath home in East Helena. This small act of kindness brought much joy to a deserving family this past spring.

2017 JANUARY

Over winter break, seven Carroll students traveled to Browning, Montana, on a Campus Ministry Headlights trip. The students worked with the De La Salle Blackfeet School. The participants all stated how moved they were by how overwhelmingly welcoming, loving, and hopeful the Blackfeet community were towards them and the work they were doing. They spoke about the meaningful connections developed during recess breaks and bonding at the cafeteria lunch tables.

“More so than probably any campus on this list, students at Carroll College are surrounded by world-class natural attractions.”

Carroll College was listed in TIME's "10 Best Colleges for People Who Love the Great Outdoors!" Criteria included access to national parks and forests and they made a point of selecting colleges where "appreciation of the outdoors was an underlying fabric of campus life."

The Talking Saints forensics team has extended Carroll's regional streak to 27 consecutive years of either winning or sharing the Northwest Forensics Conference title. They won the first place overall sweepstakes award at the Western Washington Regional Championships by beating more than twenty colleges and universities from Utah to California and all the Northwest states.

FEBRUARY

The Carroll College Grateful Saints student philanthropy program creates awareness among current students about the importance of philanthropy and the effect it has on their Carroll education and experience. Events throughout the academic year seek to develop gratitude and cultivate giving among the student body. In their senior year at Carroll, students are invited to participate in the Senior Grateful Saints campaign by making their first gift back to their college. To acknowledge their gift in the amount of their class year—$20.17 or more—senior Grateful Saints donors receive a star on their alumni walk brick.

Twenty-nine months after its ceremonial groundbreaking, the Hunthausen Activity Center held its grand opening celebration in February. The HAC was filled with individuals near and dear to the college and none more so than Archbishop Raymond Hunthausen for whom the building is named. Highlights of the evening included a spirited performance by Carroll's drum line and pep band, remarks from the Archbishop, and the unveiling of a cheerful, vibrant portrait of Archbishop Hunthausen, generously donated by the artist and Carroll alumna, Mary Larson '95.

The St. Charles Borromeo Guild recognizes leadership donors who contribute $1,000 or more to Carroll College's annual fund. The St. Charles Borromeo Guild Grant is awarded to financially and academically qualified students as a portion of their Carroll-based financial aid package. These gifts made between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017.

Anthrozoology professor Dr. Erica Feuerbacher received an additional $40,000 from Maddie's Fund to continue her research examining the effectiveness of canine temporary fostering programs. Through research conducted in the summer of 2016, Feuerbacher found that sleepover programs, which entailed dogs being fostered by a person for an evening, significantly reduced stress levels in shelter dogs.

MARCH

Carroll Connect, our new alumni directory and online networking platform, was officially launched this winter. It offers a way for alumni to connect with one another, share photos, get involved helping current students and young alums, post/search for jobs or internships, read about fellow alumni accomplishments and get Carroll news. As of this publication, the site connects over 1,400 alumni from around the world.

A new endowed scholarship has been established honoring history professor Dr. Robert Swartout Jr. The Dr. Robert Swartout Endowed Scholarship was made possible through the generosity of Thomas '83 and Kimberly '84 Whyte, with the support of Daniel Whyte '85, Michael Whyte '88, and Rex Renk '88. The scholarship is intended for a worthy Montana student with a passion for history and who exemplifies the quality, character and academic promise of a student at Carroll College.

APRIL

The Carroll Indoor Track and Field team earned eleven All-American honors at the NAIA Indoor National Championship. The competition was led with a National Championship finish for the women's 4x400 relay.

Through the enduring generosity of Roy F. Simperman, class of 1962, Carroll College was able to award $156,684 in scholarships to thirteen students through the Elsie P. Corette Memorial Scholarship and the Roy F. Simperman Science Scholarships. Over the years, the Simperman Math, Science and Nursing Scholarships and the Corette Scholarships have provided over $1,656,184 in aid to deserving students. This year's average award was $12,000.

MAY

Five of Carroll's graduating cadets took their oaths of appointment and became commissioned Second Lieutenants in the United States Army.

Carroll conferred degrees on 268 graduates during its 107th commencement ceremony. The ceremony included awards and honors for students, alumni, and faculty.

Carroll College's Constitutional Studies program was awarded $23,925 from the Apgar Foundation to support programming during the 2017-18 academic year entitled, "Religious Freedom and the American Experiment." It is the third and final year of funding from the Apgar Foundation, which aims to promote education in constitutional governance in the western tradition.

JUNE

Carroll College is the winner of the 2016-17 Bandy Memorial All-Sports Trophy Award for an unprecedented 13th time in school history. The Bandy Award is presented each year to the Frontier conference school that has accumulated the most points based on its league finish in football, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, women's volleyball, and men's and women's golf. The Saints won Frontier Conference titles in women's cross country, women's volleyball and men's basketball.

Following President Tom Evans' announcement that he would be leaving Carroll at the end of July, the Board of Trustees announced the appointment of Rev. Stephen C. Rowan, Ph.D., as the interim president of Carroll College, effective August 1, 2017.

This is the second time that Rev. Rowan has been the interim president for Carroll College, having served as our 13th president in 2000-2001.

Mind Body Spirit Campaign

Gifts of $1,000 or more
 November 10, 2011, through June 30, 2017

EXPANDING THE MIND with enhancements to the Corette Library and new equine facilities for the anthrozoology program.

DEVELOPING THE BODY with recreational facilities that enrich the physical, emotional and social well-being of students.

NURTURING THE SPIRIT through spaces for worship and service.

Anthrozoology students spent three weeks in South Africa with the program “Wildlife Conservation, Economic and Care.” Students learned about the human/animal impact in rural communities, assisted in rural veterinary outreach, visited game reserves and a wildlife rehabilitation center, and partook in a game capture course where they simulated darting wild animals (using a man-made target) from a helicopter.

Studying abroad is an integral part of the Spanish major at Carroll, as all Spanish majors must spend four to six weeks in a country where Spanish is spoken. This summer, five students were in Ecuador. They interned with the non-profit organization Families with Heart, job shadowed at the medical clinic in Puerto Quito or collected data for individual research projects.

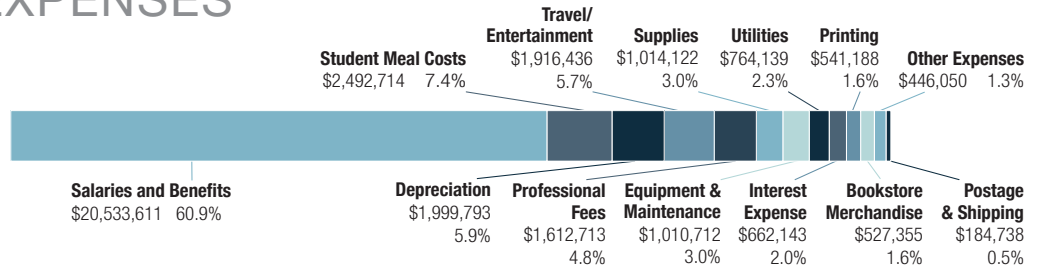

Health Science professor Kelly Parsley's Public Health Theories and Practice class was awarded the 2017 Alcohol Education Summit Outstanding Community Program of the Year award. The award recognizes a community program that has helped to change the drinking culture in their community. Their efforts included a combination of assessing alcohol use, implementing educational strategies, and supporting community partnerships.

For a second-year in a row, class of 2017 graduate and cross country and track and field All-American Leah Esposito was named the 2016-17 CoSIDA Academic All-America College Division Track and Field/Cross Country Academic All-America of the Year. Academically, Esposito graduated with a 3.97 GPA in the biology program at Carroll.
